Old Fort Western to host Motor Coach Trip to Strawberry Banke

Old Fort Western is offering a motor coach trip for members and the general public to Strawberry Banke Museum in Portsmouth, New Hampshire, on Saturday, May 17, 2008.

Strawberry Banke, Inc., which opened to the public in 1965, takes its name from and is located in the area of Portsmouth's earliest settlement. That past has become a vital part of the modern city. The museum is an important asset to the local economy and the major attraction for visitors to Portsmouth.

Participation is limited to the first 55 people to register. Forty people must register for the trip to take place. Tickets are $60 per person ($55.00 for Augusta residents, $50.00 for Old Fort Western members) and include admission fees. Lunch is on your own. Departure time is 7:00 a.m. from City Hall. Participants should plan to be back in Augusta by 8:00 p.m.

Phone 626-2385 for more information or to register. The registration deadline is Friday, April 25.
