Old Fort Western Offers New Membership Benefit

Old Fort Western is pleased to announce a new benefit for its card-carrying members.

The Fort has become affiliated with Time Travelers, a program of the Missouri Historical Society that offers reciprocal discounted admission fees and other benefits to the members of participating museums and historic sites. Currently, 185 historical entities located in 45 states participate in the program.

The full list of participating organizations and the benefits they offer may be found on the bulletin board page at www.oldfortwestern.org.

Old Fort Western members need only show their membership cards when visiting participating museums or historic sites to access these benefits. Anyone may become a member of Old Fort Western. Membership rates begin at $25 per year. Additional membership information and materials may be found on the visitor & membership information page at www.oldfortwestern.org. Membership materials may also be had by calling 626-2385.

Old Fort Western members earn free admission at the Fort, free or reduced-admission for their guests depending on where members reside, a subscription to the Fort's quarterly newsletter, and discounts on all fee-based programs and in the Fort's gift shop.
